ANNOUNCEMENTS

Norwich Red Cross Chapter. The local Red Cross chapter wishes to send every Norwich man in the service, whether in this country or abroad, a Christmas card. Addresses have been secured of the men stationed at Fort Terry and at Fort Wright, but here are many men in the service not included in these lists. Will their relatives or friends kindly write their names and addresses on postcards and send them as soon as possible to Miss l'aith R. Leavens 202 Broadway, in order that there may be no unneces-ary delay in mailing the Christmas

DAVIS THEATRE. Three Keith Vaudeville Acts and Mae Marsh in Sunshine Alley, Six Part Goldwyn Feature-Don't Fail to See

Today will be the last opportunity to see the excellent bill of Keith vau-deville and feature photoplays which has been drawing big crowds to the Davis the first half of the week. The headline attraction is Charles F. Seamon, one of the funniest fellows in udeville, astoundingly tall and thin, and universally known as one "Narrow eller." No title could be more de-criptive, for Seamon is by all odds est and most ethereal perone reviewer wrote recently, a bottle of clives would make him look like a knotted thread. To add to his grotesque appearance, Seamon dresses like a horse with interferers on his Charlie extracts music from variety of unfamiliar instruments. A running fire of comedy talk accompanied by a number of changes makes his freak music and handy legs shrieks of mirth. Another big time act is The Three Herbert Sisters, a trio of joily English sirls who present a delightful singing and dancing specialty, and the third act, Mays and Neal have a comedy skit with songs, entitled The Soap Salesman. The feature picture is Mac Marsh in Sumships Alley a quaint play with a

The feature picture is Mac Marsh in Sunshine Alley, a quaint play with a quaint actress that you cannot help but like, in six interesting acts. To complete the bill the Animated Weekly, with all the latest news in pictures will be shown. Note the change in the evening time this week. Pictures 7.15, vaudeville 8.30, pictures 9.15.

WHEN A MAN SEES RED, With William Farnum, Fox Star, in a Stirring Red Blooded Role, Will Be the Thanksgiving Special at Auditorium Theatre.

In the newest William Fox super de In the newest William Fox super de luxe photodrama. When a Man Sees Red, in which William Farnum plays the leading role, the eminent screen star is seen in a characterization of an adventurous rover of the Seven seas who, despite his vocation, is imbued with a spirit of good that manifests itself in many of his big hearted actions. This photodrama is founded on larry Evans short story, The Painted Lady, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post.

Evening Post.

Vaudeville and feature pictures are the attraction for today, with Billy Newkirk and the Homer Sisters in a new collection of songs and dances: e, two clever boys in comedy talk and singing. The Guardian, a big five part picture, and a good Christic comedy all go to make up a fine show. There will be four performances on Thanksgiving day at 1.30, 3, 7 and 8.45.

BREED THEATRS.

Madame Petrova in More Truth Than Poetry, Feature for Today and Thursday—Four Shows Thanksgiv-ing Day, 2, 3.30, 7 and 8.30 p. m.

Today and Thursday the Breed will present Madame Petrova in the Metro wonderplay More Truth Than Poetry, and again Madame Petrova is seen in a production of power and distinction. It also has an additional interest beause it was written by the star her-elf. The production has been staged with great care and attention to detail and the force and power of the scenes, the star's superb costumes, and the strong love element will appeal to every person who witnesses this production. The star is supported by a well snown cast of screen favorites and inblude Mahlon Hamilton, William B. Davidson, Violet Reed and Harry Burkhardt.

The Burton Holmes travelogue will with great care and attention to detail

The Burton Holmes travelogue will also be shown and a very funny Victor Moore comedy completes the bill. Tomorrow. Thanksgiving day, the Breed will give four shows at 2, 5.30, and 8.30 p. m.

Temperature 7 Degrees on Plain Hill Tuesday Morning—Schools Contrib-ute Liberally to Holiday Dinner Supplies-Mrs. Herbert Hitchon Leaving for New York-Illustrated Lecture.

Early Tuesday morning, on Huntington lane, in spite of the intense cold, a cathird was joyously singing in the top of an elm. This bird winters in the Guif states and southward but is rare west of the Rockies. The winter birds are very hungry these days, especially the nuthatch and downy woodpecker—if the suet is crowded firmly into the cracks of the free above the feeding cracks of the tree above the feeding place the blejays will not be able to fly away with the larger pieces and so get the larger share.

In a recent discussion in orwich of materials for break making it was noted that the bread made of mixed Raised $13,000 for Y. M. C. A. A letter received Tuesday from Miss Gertrude S. Hyde, associate professor of art at Mount Holyoke college, South Hadley, Mass., says that the college was asked to raise $5,000 for the Y. M C. A. During campaign week they raised $13,000, representing much sac-rifice on the part of many. Miss Hyde is not coming to her home on Wash ington street this week as in past years—the Thanksgiving recess is so short.

Music Followed Bible Pictures. There was a crowded house at the First Methodist church Sunday even-ing to enjoy the Bible pictures thrown upon the screen by Ensign Baglin. Mrs. Baglin and Miss Martha Brown song the duets Let the Lower Lights Be Burning and Jesus, Savior, Pilot Be Burning and Jesus, Savior, Pilo Me. Mrs. Baglin sang to the accom-paniment of the guitar Billy Sunday's favorite hymn, Alone.

Y. P. S. C. E. Semi-Annual Election Alarm For Chimney Fire Sent Out by Telephone-Good Yield of Corn.

The Liberty Hill Y. P. S. C. E. held the semi-annual business meeting on Sunday evening. The following officers were elected: Mrs. E. P. Payson, president; Charles E. Goodrich, vice president and Mrs. J. George Clark, secretary and treasurer.

There was a chimney fire at the home of Mr. Shuman, the blacksmith, Sunday morning, just before church time. The neighbors were quickly notified by telephone and the blaze was put out before much damage was done.

Mrs. Wallace Palmer, the church organist, who has been in poor health some time past, has so far recovered as to preside at the organ Sunday.

POETRY

THE SINGING SOUL.

I hear the tides at twillight cry Along the windy shore Like ghosts from ocean's peopled deeps Who seek old haunts once more. Like cryings heard across the years. Now faint, now clear and high— I thought of those who on the reefs Of life this even die,

Then swinging down the restless night I heard a sailor's song; its mounting accents ringing gay The tides' deep threat along. so, thought I, sings the soul of man Uncowed by death or time, At home amid the circling stars. Or earth's gray, humbler clime;

singer in the cosmic night. Where tides eternal beat, erene among the rushing wo The comets' flame and heat! Arthur Wallace Peach, in the Boston
